

Grammar review

Have/get something done

have/get en el tiempo verbal que corresponda + something + participio

Lo usamos para hablar de cosas que nosotros no hacemos pero alguien hace por nosotros

I cut my hair yesterday (I cut my hair myself)

I had/got my hair cut yesterday (The hairdresser cut my hair)

Active: The painters are painting my house

Passive: My house is being painted

Have something done: I am having my house painted / I am getting my house painted

Active: I went to the hospital and the nurse tested my blood pressure

Passive: I went to the hospital and my blood pressure was tested (by the nurse)

Have something done: I went to the hospital, and I had/got my blood pressure tested.